3. The NIO will lead a discussion on the results of the recent interagency conference on money laundering. An interagency project designed to target laundering activities of selected traffickers also will be discussed along with agency responsibilities to support this effort.

4. As recommended in the recent CIPC narcotics study, the NIO will initiate an interagency review of the foreign intelligence holdings on the counterintelligence capabilities of narcotics trafficking organizations. All representatives should be prepared to discuss in detail the potential contributions their agency can make to this effort. The goal of this study will be to produce an Interagency Intelligence Assessment on the full range of trafficker counterintelligence capabilities and intelligence gaps on this issue.

5. OGI analysts will discuss specific collection gaps on narcotics in [ ] as gleaned from their recent travel to these areas.
